Description

During the last decade, unions have stepped up their organizing efforts in the health care industry. Home Health Care Providers are not immune to union activity and we have seen a rise in organizing in our industry, despite the obstacles. This webinar is designed to educate our members on how union organizing works, typical strategies used by unions to organize workers in our field, the rules governing what employers can say and do in response to union organizing efforts, and offer proven strategies and tips for effectively dealing with union organizing

Program Topics:

- To provide attendees with basic knowledge of the laws and regulations that govern what can be done/said in union organizing campaigns
- To provide attendees with guidelines and strategies for becoming a target for union organizing and strategies for reacting to union activity
- To provide attendees with insight into union organizing from the union's perspective
